EZGSA Helps Collection Agency Obtain GSA Schedule Contract

April 12, 2004 — BETHESDA, MD - EZGSA (www.ezgsa.com) today announced that four additional client businesses obtained listings on GSA Schedules last month. EZGSA assists small- and medium-sized businesses to increase their revenue by obtaining GSA Schedule contracts. The GSA (General Services Administration) Schedule is a long-term, government-wide catalogue of commercial businesses' products and services.

The most recent EZGSA clients to receive GSA Schedule contracts include:

- AmSher Receivables Management (Financial and Business Solutions, Schedule 520 -GSA Contract #GS-23F-0153P) AmSher Receivables Management is a debt collection agency. They manage the collection process from charge off through litigation.
- Collaborative Solutions, LLC (Information Technology, Schedule 70 - GSA Contract #GS-35F-0256P) Collaborative Solutions is a management and information technology consulting organization. They focus on the delivery of administrative, supply chain, and financial management solutions to federal, public and private sector clients.
- Dragon Well, LLC (Marketing, Media and Public Relations, Schedule 7381 - GSA Contract #GS-23F-0125P and #GS-23F-0124P) Dragon Well is a full-service media provider in the fields of communications and marketing.
- The Siena Group, LLC (Information Technology, Schedule 70 - GSA Contract #GS-35F-0270P) The Siena Group is an IT products reseller, featuring an automated risk assessment software, The Buddy System by Countermeasures, Inc.

"The decision to focus on the government market was a daunting prospect. EZGSA made the process of applying for the GSA Schedule so simple. We immediately knew we were working with seasoned professionals, who could simultaneously deal with Collaborative Solutions and the GSA," said Carroll Ross, Director of Operations for Collaborative Solutions, LLC. "EZGSA was a seamless extension of our company, guiding us, accepting input, and applying their knowledge to the formal proposal and final successful listing."

"Because of working with EZGSA for listing on GSA Schedules, these businesses now have the ability to provide the world's largest consumer — the U.S. Government — with an easier way to purchase their goods and services," said Scott Orbach, president, EZGSA.
