Dear Scott:

I had the pleasure of attending your work shop, "Applying for the GSA", at the Procurement Fair held at Raritan Valley Community college this summer. The process has always seemed a little mysterious to me, but I am happy to say that your presentation took away all of the mystery.

Your presentation was helpful to those of us that had no previous knowledge regarding GSA, but also very useful to those in the room that either already had a GSA schedule, or were seeking one. It was obvious that your depth of knowledge went far beyond the power-point presentation, allowing you to respond effectively to questions and concerns presented by the audience.

Your presentation style is both entertaining and engaging. Great job.

Sincerely,

Gary W. Rago
